

VIVOS Occupational Health (Pty) Ltd

VIVOS (Pty) Ltd is an Approved Inspection Authority (A.I.A certificate number OH0220-CI038) registered with the Department of Labour (DOL) and the South African National Accreditation System (SANAS No OH0220). VIVOS is strategically positioned to provide specialized services to industry and mining industries to provide Occupational Hygiene expertise covering physical and chemical stress factors, ventilation systems, hand-arm and whole-body vibration. VIVOS (Pty) Ltd currently has the following vacancies:

Registered Occupational Hygiene Technologist (ROHT):

- ROHT based in Hotazel

Required abilities:

- Formal Occupational Hygiene qualification, as per the requirements set by the South African Institute of Occupational Hygiene (SAIOH) for registration as an Occupational Hygiene Technologist
- Registration with the South African Institute of Occupational Hygiene (SAIOH) on at least Occupational Hygiene Technologist level
- Code 08 Drivers Licence
- Own transport
- Legal knowledge certificate
- Computer literacy in Microsoft Office
- Experience of at least 2 years' experience in the Occupational Hygiene field
- Medical Certificate of fitness

Tasks required include:

- Conducting of occupational health risk assessments
- Conduct surveys of workplaces with potential occupational health hazards in the form of chemical hazards, physical hazards, ergonomic hazards or biological hazards
- Evaluate and quantify the levels of the different hazards present by making use of specialized equipment and instrumentation
- Organize the taking of samples for airborne pollutants and components, fumes, gases, vapors or mists
- Compare findings of assessments and surveys with statutory exposure limits to determine if a potential hazardous situation exists
- Recommend on controls for risk mitigation
- Conduct ergonomically orientated surveys to alter the working environment to minimize hazards to the employee

Registered Occupational Hygiene Assistant (ROHA):

- ROHA based in Hotazel

Required abilities:

- Formal Occupational Hygiene qualification, as per the requirements set by the South African Institute of Occupational Hygiene (SAIOH) for registration as an Occupational Hygiene Assistant
- Registration with the South African Institute of Occupational Hygiene (SAIOH) on at least Occupational Hygiene Assistant level
- Code 08 Drivers Licence
- Own transport
- Legal knowledge certificate (to be obtained within 6 months from employment)
- Computer literacy in Microsoft Office
- Advantageous: 6 months' experience in the Occupational Hygiene field
- Medical Certificate of fitness

Tasks required include:

- Assist with the conducting of Occupational Hygiene risk assessments
- Conduct Occupational Hygiene measurements according to measurement program set by the Company
- Performing pre-use inspections of sampling instrumentation
- Reporting of defective instrumentation
- Performing pre and post sampling calibrations on the sampling instrumentation utilized
- Issuing of sampling instrumentation to employees of clients for personal exposure monitoring at the start of the working shift
- Receiving of sampling instrumentation from employees of clients for personal exposure monitoring at end of the working shift
- Meet time deadlines pertaining to Occupational Hygiene personal exposure monitoring
- On-site storage of sampling instrumentation
- Participate in audits
- Assist with the conducting of area Occupational Hygiene surveys

VIVOS (Pty) Ltd offers the following:

- Competitive salary packages.
- Competitive traveling rates.
- Annual leave according to BCEA and study leave to complete an approved qualification in the field of Occupational Hygiene.
- Professional growth and flexibility.
- Dynamic work environment.

Closing Date for Applications: 5 March 2018

Interested parties should e-mail a CV to HR@vivos.co.za

If we do not contact you within 2 weeks of the closing date, please consider the application unsuccessful.

